PROPERTY DEVELOPMENT

DESA PARKCITY

Desa ParkCity, at 473 acres, is the largest on-going master-planned community in Kuala Lumpur, the capital of Malaysia. Born from a vision to provide wholesome, healthy living to its residents, it is the first sustainable master planned township that embraces New Urbanism principles. It integrates and consistently promotes the components of modern life – housing, workplace, education, leisure and entertainment.

Extensive and indiscriminate rock blasting had ravaged the former quarry, leaving it devoid of redeeming qualities and inhospitable to beneficial development. Prerequisite environmental clean-up and hill slope repairs made the task of shaping the land for development both challenging and costly. Site earthwork and building construction began in June 2002.

When completed, Desa ParkCity will have about 7,500 residential units, spread over 25 districts, with a completed and fully operational town centre, neighbourhood shopping mall, recreational facilities and amenities, schools and a private hospital.

A prominent lake is visible in the lower center, surrounded by lush vegetation and walking paths. In the background, the city skyline and distant mountains are visible under a bright blue sky with scattered clouds. The text 'DESA PARKCITY' is visible on a hillside in the lower right.

Today, Desa ParkCity is a vibrant and thriving community destined to prosper, bolstered by its sustainability and its articulation of New Urbanist principles.
